My dear Friend

Although I have not done much this year except in collecting a few contributions from my friends and assisting my valued friend Esther Stange a little in the preparation of her Box, I do not like it to depart without thanking thee for the kind note I received last spring which I keep in my Work Box and often look at with feelings of lively emotion towards these distant sisters who are pursuing their indefatigable exertions in the cause of suffering humanity.
Many hearts in this land respond to your generous and self-sacrificing exertions, and earnest by divine the divine blessing may attend your onward course

I have also to thank thee for a copy of the "Liberty Bell," which I have perused with much interest. With very sincere regard and unabated interest for the great cause in which thou art so nobly engaged. I am thy affectionate friend
